LAMB ORDER FORM

When you buy Colorado Grown lamb you can enjoy succulent, delicious meat and know that it comes from grass-fed lambs raised naturally on the lush meadows along Cottonwood Creek in Buena Vista, Colorado.

You can order a half or whole lamb, custom cut to your own specifications at a local, family-owned meat processing facility in the Upper Arkansas Valley. The cost of the lamb is $1.45 per pound live weight. A 130 lb lamb costs approximately $190, plus $65 for processing. The total for a whole lamb is $260 or $130 for a half lamb.

A whole lamb will yield about 55 lbs of cut and wrapped meat, so you pay approximately $4.75 per lb for all cuts. That's a great value!

To guarantee your order, we request a $50 deposit. Please send your check payable to Colorado Grown along with this order form to the address above. Due to our limited number of lambs, orders will be accepted on a first come, first-served basis.

BEEF ORDER FORM

We raise grass-fed beef on the lush meadows along Cottonwood Creek, just west of Buena Vista, Colorado. Our animals have never been fed grain and provide high-quality, grass fattened beef that is superior to conventionally grown animals. The beef are harvested by a family-owned meat processing facility here in the Upper Arkansas Valley and are custom cut and packaged according to your specifications.

You can order a whole, half or quarter beef at a cost of $1.40 per lb live weight. A 1000 lb steer is $1400, plus the cost of processing. Thus a whole beef will run $1650 or $825 for a half. Cut and wrapped, a whole animal yields about 425 lbs; your cost is approximately $3.80 to $4.00 per pound. This is a great value!

To guarantee your order, we request a $50 deposit. Please send your check payable to Colorado Grown along with this order form to the address above. We are happy to provide you with this quality meat product.
